The Centre for Nation Building and Languages (CNBL) has been established to provide a range of language and Mata Pelajaran Pengajian Umum (MPU) courses to complement and supplement Tunku Abdul Rahman University College’s institutional mission of providing complete quality education for the students.
Globalisation has elevated the status of English to become a global language where people all over the world become connected to each other through English. Therefore, mastering English provides you with a key that can unlock many doors of opportunities. Moreover, a good command of English is also the passport to obtaining excellent results in your pursuit of tertiary education.

You will learn English according to stages of progression, namely English Language, English for Communication and English for IELTS. The syllabi are designed to reinforce your existing English language skills. Besides, you will learn English as used in your area of specialisation such as English for Management, English for the Profession and English for the Humanities.

You will undertake courses such as Tamadun Islam dan Asia, Pengajian Malaysia, Hubungan Etnik and Contemporary Malaysian Issues. These will help you gain a better understanding of your country and your fellow countrymen - the past, the present and the aspiration for the future.

You will also learn to express yourself confidently through courses embedded in curricular activities such as Public Speaking and Drama. Courses such as Social and Work Etiquette, Entrepreneurship as well as Critical Thinking will provide you with interpersonal, entrepreneurial, teamwork, problem-solving, planning and organisational skills.

Through the Civic Consciousness and Volunteerism course, you will become aware of your social responsibility and be attuned to the needs of society. You will also be given the platform to make a difference in the lives of others.

You will become a well-rounded individual with the necessary soft skills;
You will be better equipped to face the various challenges ahead;
You will have broader perspectives about various issues; and
Your mind and soul will be enriched with a lasting imprint of values.

In addition, you will learn to do the following:

- embrace diversity
- serve the wider community with your skills and knowledge

You will have a fabulous and exciting time learning as you will be using a vast array of learning modes such as:

- electronic media
- role-playing
