Application Procedure for Malaysian Qualification Statement

General Information

Malaysian Qualification Statement is a document issued to students who have successfully completed their TAR UMT Bachelor Degree or postgraduate qualification. It describes the qualification they have received in a standard format that is designed by the Malaysian Qualifications Agency (MQA).

Graduates can view and print the MQS document from the TAR UMT Student Intranet after three (3) working days from the publication of the Name Lists of Graduates. Graduates can print the MQS document via Student Intranet free of charge until the day of the convocation ceremony.

For any request for printing of MQS after the convocation day, there will be an administrative fee of RM30 charged. Additional charges will be imposed for mailing services.
