- Students receiving Conditional Offer of admission to refer to another payment plan under the 'Fees Schedule for Students on Conditional Offer' at www.tarc.edu.my.
- The following PRIHATIN plan is for students receiving Full Offer of admission.

TUNKU ABDUL RAHMAN UNIVERSITY OF MANAGEMENT AND TECHNOLOGY

PRIHATIN FLEXI PAYMENT PLAN ("PRIHATIN PLAN") FOR YEAR 2025

TO: MALAYSIAN STUDENT (WITH FULL OFFER OF ADMISSION) PRE-UNIVERSITY AND UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMMES YEAR 2025 INTAKES

TAR UMT is offering flexi payment plan to new intake students, including promotion students to Bachelor Degree programmes, for the first semester of study. It aims to bring financial relief to students by providing greater flexibility in the first semester fees payment.

This payment plan is available to:

- Full-time Malaysian students;
- Students with offer of admission (for new and promotion students to Bachelor Degree) into any programme of study of Year 2025 intakes;
- Foundation, Diploma and Bachelor Degree programmes.

This payment plan is not applicable to 100% Merit Scholarship recipients.

PAYMENT PLAN CONDITIONS

1. This payment plan is valid for the first semester of study only.
2. Payment plan is available in the following schedules and is to be paid according to the amount and payment options by due date stipulated in each advice in the following schedule.

2.1 Three (3) Instalments for Long Semester

Tranche	Amount	Due Date of Payment
I	RM280 (for Registration, Orientation & Insurance fees)	On or before the due date stipulated in the Payment Details advice (issued with the offer letter)
II	40% of 'Net Fees Amount less RM280'	By week 3 of study
III	60% of 'Net Fees Amount less RM280'	By week 9 of study

Applicable to:

a. First Semester February 2025 Intake - Foundation, Diploma & Bachelor Degree Programmes

b. First Semester June 2025 Intake - Foundation, Diploma & Bachelor Degree Programmes

c. First Semester October 2025 Intake - Foundation Programmes

2.2 Two (2) Instalments for Short Semester

Tranche	Amount	Due Date of Payment
I	RM280 (for Registration, Orientation & Insurance fees)	On or before the due date stipulated in the Payment Details advice (issued with the offer letter)
II	Balance of 'Net Fees Amount less RM280'	By week 5 of study

Applicable to:

d. First Semester November 2025 Intake - Diploma & Bachelor Degree Programmes

Upon receiving the offer of admission, eligible students shall be given this fees instalment option to select in the application webpage.

3. To ensure that student's registration for the programme offered is accepted by the University, the onus is on the students to adhere STRICTLY to the stated payment due date in each respective advice. Student's registration for the programme offered shall only be valid if full payment is received by the stipulated due dates.

Student is to first pay Tranche I to avoid offer of admission from being lapsed. The University is not bound to accept Tranche II and/or Tranche III payment(s) in the event Tranche I is not paid by the stipulated due date. For such cases, the University reserves the right to reject such payment(s) and renders the registration by the students concerned as null and void. In the event of such rejection, the University shall refund the said payment(s) free of interest and without any further responsibility or liability whatsoever on the part of the University.

4. Failure to pay by the payment due date shall result in student being charged a late penalty fee per instalment of RM50 (Diploma & Foundation programmes) and RM100 (Degree programmes) or withdrawn without further notice.
5. Non-compliance to pay instalments by the payment due dates stipulated in advice may result in one of the following:
 - Student may not be allowed to sit for examinations;
 - Results may not be released to the student; or
 - Student Intranet may be encumbered.

6. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- 6.1 Students are not allowed to change the payment plan once application is submitted. Any request to change the payment plan will not be entertained.
- 6.2 All notification of withdrawal must be made in writing. Students who fail to notify the University on their withdrawal of studies will render them liable to all fees due.

- 6.3 Any withdrawal from programme prior to full settlement of fees does not release the student from the balance of the commitment due to the University. The amount remaining outstanding will continue to remain payable to the University. If any payment is defaulted, the University reserves the right to pursue the matter through a court of law to recover the amount due.
- 6.4 The University reserves the right to reject any cases of short payment of fees by students and renders their registration with the University as null and void.
- 6.5 The University is not bound to accept any late payment inadvertently accepted via Interbank Funds Transfer after the due date. For such cases, the University reserves the right to reject such payment and renders the registration by the students concerned as null and void. In the event of such rejection, the Bank shall refund the said payment free of interest and without any further responsibility or liability whatsoever on the part of the University.
- 6.6 The University reserves the right to review, alter and/ or otherwise amend any terms and conditions herein from time to time at the absolute discretion of the University.
- 6.7 The University reserves the right to terminate or end the payment plan at any time the University deems fit and in the event that the University decides to terminate or end the payment plan, all outstanding fees become payable forthwith without any notice or demand to students and students must forthwith and immediately pay all outstanding fees to the University.

7. REFUND OF FEES

- 7.1 There shall be no refund of fees paid under the "PRIHATIN Flexi Payment Plan" if the semester fees are not fully paid, save for Clause 7.2. Refund of fees for fully paid students shall be subject to the terms and conditions laid down in "Refund of Fees for Registered Student".
- 7.2 Caution money (less any liability) may only be refunded on application after a student has graduated or withdrawn/ disqualified* from his/her programme of study at the University. The application for the refund shall be made within one year from the date of graduation or withdrawal/ disqualification from the University, failing which, the said caution money shall be transferred and contributed to TARC Education Foundation.

 Disqualification shall include but not limited to situations where a student is unable to or prevented from joining/proceeding with the programme by way of operation of law, regulations and/or policies.*

⚠ Important Notes

1. If you anticipate the disbursement of the KWSP payment to be after the fee payment due date, please write a letter before the fee payment due date for payment extension to the Dean of your Faculty for recommendation. You will receive a notification from Faculty / Department of Finance if your request for extension of payment is successful or otherwise, if we do not receive any notification from you after the fee payment due date, you will be withdrawn and reinstatement charges of RM150 will apply if you wish to be reinstated.
2. We have been instructed by KWSP that the money withdrawn for education purpose has to be deducted against the student fees over the duration of study and any excess has to be returned by us back to KWSP.
3. Please be alert on TAR UMT email as TAR UMT will be informing you once the letter for EPF (KWSP) is ready.
4. You are reminded that the onus is on you, the student, to ensure that the semester bill is FINAL (after Add/Drop exercise) before you submit this application.
5. Application submitted is considered final and no changes will be allowed. Please check again as only 1 application will be allowed in each semester.
6. TAR UMT reserves the right to amend any information submitted by the applicant if it does not align with the details stated in the PTPTN Offer Letter uploaded.

☒ I have read the important notes as above.
