To All Staff and Stakeholders,

TARC Education Foundation (TARC EF) and its Institution of Higher Learning TUNKU ABDUL RAHMAN UNIVERSITY OF MANAGEMENT AND TECHNOLOGY (TAR UMT) do not tolerate and are against all forms of bribery and corruption within all business activities.

This ABAC Policy shall be the reference and guide to the Board of Trustees, the Board of Governors, the Senate, the Senior Management Committee and Management Committee on standards when dealing with matters appertaining to bribery and corruption.

Datuk Seri Ir. Dr. Wee Ka Siong,
Chairman,
Board of Trustees,
TARC EDUCATION FOUNDATION
(Reg. No. 201301003979)
Date: 11 November 2020
1. Introduction

S.17A is to govern corporate liability that may result from a corporation’s personnel corruption or bribery.

Consequently, and pursuant to the MACC Act and Guidelines, TARC EF has taken the precautionary steps as defence procedures against the said corporate liability as hereunder.

2. Definitions
Under TARC EF’s ABAC Policy, the Terms hereunder shall be defined as follows:

Bribery shall include but not limited to mean; the demand, offering, promising, providing, accepting or otherwise soliciting an inducement for an unwarranted advantage, whether pecuniary or otherwise.

Inducement shall include but not limited to mean; any and all forms of gifts, loans, fees, forbearance, advantages, services or otherwise rewards intended to be a bribery.

Associated Persons
Section 17A(6) of the MACC Act 2009 provides that associated persons include the directors, partners and employees of the commercial organisation and persons who perform services for and on behalf of the commercial organisation.

For the purposes of this ABAC Policy, the term “Personnel” shall include associated persons under S.17A(6) above.

Corruption
Corruption is dishonest behaviour by those in positions of power, such as managers or government officials. Corruption can include giving or accepting bribes or inappropriate gifts, double-dealing, under-the-table transactions, manipulating elections, diverting funds, laundering money, and defrauding investors.

For the purpose of this ABAC Policy, “Corruption” is defined primarily as any action which would be considered as an offence of giving or receiving “Gratification” under the MACC Act.

Stakeholders
a. Students
b. Alumni
c. Parents
d. Agents
e. Vendors
f. Contractors
g. Suppliers
h. Consultants
i. Public Officers
j. Clients or Customers

Gratification pursuant to Section 3 of MACC Act

a) Policies and Procedures

All Head of Departments shall use reasonable care to ensure that effective processes of business controls are in place in their respective area of responsibility.

Personnel shall strictly adhere to this ABAC Policy AND all other policies and procedures of TARC EF and or TAR UMT respectively.

Non-compliance shall be treated seriously and may result in disciplinary action, which action may include but not limited to warning, demotion, withholding of increment and or bonus, suspension, dismissal, and or legal action.

b) Confidential Information

All Personnel shall exercise caution and care in handling any information obtained in the course of their duties.
Such information may be confidential or sensitive in nature and in relation to TARC EF, TAR UMT and or business associates.

All Personnel shall be prohibited from disclosing any such information unless expressly authorised to do so by their relevant Heads of Department.

4.3 Conflict of Interest
Conflicts of interest arise in situations where an individual, has a personal interest that interferes or may be seen as interfering with that individual’s objectivity when performing duties or exercising judgement on behalf of TARC EF, including but not limited to, for the benefit, whether actual or perceived, of his or her family/household and or friends.

The use of position, resources, assets, confidential information, and intelligence gained for personal gain or to TARC EF’s disadvantage are prohibited.

All Personnel of TARC EF shall avoid the situation where a conflict of interest may occur. In the event of an actual or perceived conflict of interest, Personnel shall follow these procedures:

- a. Complete the Conflicts of Interest Disclosure Form, in the format of Form A hereto.
- b. Report to the Designated Person stated in Clause 8.3 below.

4.4 Gift, Entertainment, Hospitality & Travel (“GEHT”)
TARC EF prohibits the giving and receiving of Gift, Entertainment, Hospitality & Travel (“GEHT”) to influence business decisions.

Employees are discouraged from giving or accepting GEHT to or from any External Party especially that:

- a. Influence or appear to influence any business decision.
- b. Connected with contractual negotiations, tender awards or similar circumstances and or gain an unfair advantage.

The occasional acceptance or offer of modest GEHT may be a legitimate custom or practice in a business relationship. As such, eligible personnel are allowed to entertain external parties through a reasonable act of hospitality as part of networking as well as a measure of goodwill towards the external parties. Corporate hospitality includes but not limited to conferences, forums, presentations, awards, gala dinners, concerts or other activity-based events may be recognised as a legitimate way to network and build goodwill.

Personnel at all levels are strictly prohibited to provide GEHT with corrupt intention or improper cause, undue influence on any party in exchange for any benefit.
In the event of actual GEHT, Personnel shall: -

a. Complete the Gift, Entertainment, and Hospitality & Travel (GEHT) Form, in the format of Form B hereto.

b. Maintain GEHT expenses within the permissible limits, when carrying out GEHT activities (please refer to the Approval Matrix in Appendix hereto).

c. Report to the Designated Person stated in Clause 8.3 below.

d. The Designated Person shall approve any one of the appropriate treatments of GEHT below: -

   i. Retained by Employee.
   ii. Retained for Departmental display.
   iii. Sharing with other Employees.
   iv. Donation to Charity.
   v. Return to Offeror.
   vi. Others as deemed appropriate for the circumstances thereto.

4.5 Donations & Sponsorships (“D&S”)

a. TARC EF as a Company Limited By Guarantee (CLBG) and being accorded tax exempt status under S.44(6) of the Income Tax Act 1967 shall only receive bona fide donations from all donors.

b. The receiving or provision of Sponsorships as Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) shall be made in accordance with existing corporate and academic policies and practices, as the case may be.

When in doubt, please seek advice as stated in Clause 8.3 below.

4.6 Facilitation Payments

Facilitation payments involving cash or other pecuniary advantages to secure or expedite the performance of a routine or administrative duty or function.

Any and all forms of Facilitation Payments are deemed as a bribe and is a form of corruption, amount notwithstanding, AND is strictly prohibited. In the event facilitation payments are requested or offered, Personnel shall report it to the Designated Person stated in Clause 8.3 below and the payment must be recorded immediately thereafter and transparently.

4.7 Financial Controls

TARC EF has in place comprehensive financial controls, such as separation of duties and approving powers or multiple signatories for financial transactions.

4.8 Non-Financial Controls

TARC EF’s non-financial controls, such as separation of duties according to the appointed Authorities and approving powers for non-financial transactions involving TAR UMT are in place for maintaining effective operation.
4.9 Anti-Corruption Monitoring Framework
TARC EF carries out periodic monitoring with the Board of Trustees.

The ABAC Compliance Manager stated in Clause 8.3, shall be responsible for supervising, monitoring and updating on the ABAC Policy, risk assessment and counter measure procedures to ensure the existing programmes are relevant, effective and efficient to combat bribery and corruption.

4.10 Record Keeping
TARC EF carries out yearly and regular audits on all available accounting, record-keeping and financial reporting requirements through its Internal Audit Division and the Board of Trustees' Audit and Risk Committee.

5. Risk Assessment

5.1 ISO 31000:2018 Risk Management: Guidelines ("ISO 31000")

To the best of its resources and subject to a legal demand, TARC EF will assess the key corruption risks by adopting the best practices of ISO 31000:2018 Risk Management: Guidelines ("ISO 31000").

The ISO 31000 risk management framework comprises of a systematic application of processes:

- Establish Context
- Risk Identification
- Risk Analysis
- Risk Evaluation
- Risk Treatment

5.2 Establish Context
This is defining the external and internal parameters to be considered when managing risk, and setting the scope and standards, laws, policies and other requirements.

5.3 Risk Identification
Risk identification involves the identification of tangible or intangible risk sources, events with one or more occurrences, and can have several causes, their causes and their potential consequences.

Risk identification is performed based on historical data, theoretical analysis, informed and expert opinions, stakeholder's needs and may involve:

- Opportunity for corruption and fraud activities from weaknesses in TARC EF's governance framework, internal systems or procedures.
- Financial transactions disguising corrupt payments.
- Business activities in higher corruption risk countries or sectors.
- Non-compliance by External Parties (Associated Person) acting on behalf for legal & regulatory related anti-corruption procedures.
v. Relationship with third parties (agents, vendors, contractors and suppliers) in the supply chain.

5.4 Risk Analysis
A process to comprehend the nature of risk and to determine the combination of consequences and likelihood.

“Consequences” refers to an outcome of an event affecting objectives, whether its certain or uncertain, qualitatively or quantitatively.

“Likelihood” refers to the chance of something happening, whether defined, measured or determined objectively or subjectively, qualitatively or quantitatively.

5.5 Risk Evaluation
A process of comparing the results of Risk Analysis with the objectives to determine whether the risk and/or its magnitude is acceptable or tolerable.

5.6 Risk Treatment
Deals with negative consequences, which are sometimes referred to as “risk mitigation”, “risk elimination”, “risk prevention” and “risk reduction”.

Risk Treatment can create new risks or modify existing risks that are to be approved by the Directors.

Risk Treatment can involve:

i. avoiding the risk by deciding not to start or continue with the activity that gives rise to the risk;
ii. taking or increasing risk in order to pursue an opportunity;
iii. removing the risk source;
iv. changing or reducing the likelihood and the consequences;
v. sharing the risk with another party or parties; and
vi. retaining the risk by informed decision.

5.7 Risk Assessment Review
TARC EF maintains a stand-alone Risk Register on key corruption risk and shall be reviewed every three (3) years or as and when important material events occur during yearly periodic audit or otherwise.

Material events may include change in law or business circumstances, and the happening of significant business events.

6. Undertake Control Measures
TARC EF undertakes reasonable control and contingency measures reasonable and proportionate to the scale of business operations to address any corruption risks arising from weaknesses in its governance framework, processes and procedures.

Such control and contingency measures include:

a. Due diligence
b. Whistleblowing channels
6.1 Due Diligence
Prior to entering into any formalised commercial or agency relationships for and on behalf of TARC EF or prior to entering into any formalised employment relationship with a potential employee (Personnel); as a matter of practice, TARC EF conducts due diligence with regards to the Internal or External Parties below respectively: -

a. Board Members
b. Employees
c. Customers
d. Agents
e. Vendors
f. Contractors
g. Suppliers
h. Consultants

TARC EF adopts a combination of Due Diligence Methods below: -

c. Interview with the Internal and External Parties.
d. Hire external advisors (legal, accounting, forensic or others).
e. Others (from time to time and as the case may be).

6.2 Whistleblowing Channels
TARC EF encourages highest integrity from all its Personnel and External Parties. TARC EF takes a serious view of any corrupt practices by any of its Personnel and External Parties, with respect to TARC EF’s interests.

The Whistleblowing Channels are established for all Parties to report, in good faith, suspected or attempted or real corruption without fear of retaliation.

TARC EF has established secured information system and guarantees confidentiality for such information and the reporter’s identity.

Procedure for whistleblowing is set out below: -

a. Complete the “Whistleblowing Form” in the format in Form C hereto.
b. Send the completed “Whistleblowing Form” by email to whistle@tarc.edu.my

7. Systematic Review, Monitoring and Enforcement

7.1 Regular Review
The Board of Trustees will be responsible to ensure regular review of the ABAC Policy for efficiency, effectiveness and its enforcement.

The review may be carried out by the Internal Auditor or the Internal Compliance Person or an outsourced external party, with the objective to improve controls of the ABAC Policy and procedures herein.

7.2 Monitoring Programme
TARC EF shall ensure the monitoring programme covers all aspects in the ABAC Policy. The Internal Auditor or the Internal Compliance Person or an outsourced external party shall report to the Board of Trustees as the ultimate oversight of the monitoring programme for continuous improvement of the ABAC Policy.

7.3 Disciplinary Proceeding
Non-compliance with the ABAC Policy and procedures may lead to disciplinary action, which action shall be subjected to TARC EF’s existing Human Resource disciplinary proceedings and outcomes.
8. Training and Communication

8.1 Communication Policies
This ABAC Policy, and its’ update, is made available to the Personnel, Stakeholders and all other interested Parties online at https://www.tarc.edu.my/abac-policy.jsp
