

Professor Katherine Leni Oglesby

Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor
University of Teesside, UK

Professor Katherine Leni Oglesby is currently the Senior Deputy Vice-Chancellor, University of Teesside. She has held academic and management posts at the universities of: Leicester, Sheffield, Lancaster, Surrey, Manchester Metropolitan; and a secondment to the Higher Education Funding Council (England)

She is also a member of HEFCE Board Strategic Advisory Committee on Widening Access and Participation and a member of HEFCE/QAA Task Group on Employer Engagement and quality assurance. She is the Chair of Universities UK working group on admissions of part-time and mature students to HE as well as the Hon. Secretary, Universities Association for Lifelong Learning.

Her other previous roles were as President, European Bureau of Adult Education, Vice-Chair, of the National Institute of Adult Continuing Education. In addition, she was also the Chair of Greater Manchester HEIs Aim Higher Steering Group and Council member of Society for Research in Higher Education

She is also involved in consultancy work for a number of universities, e.g. Newcastle, Nottingham, Strathclyde, Surrey, Salford, York St John.